al-Mutanabbī and al-Mubarrad: a contribution to an Abbāsid history of emotions. Journal of Abbasid Studies, 4 i (2017) pp. 1-34. "Al-Rabī' was famous for his elegies on his slave woman, Mulk. While scholars such as al-Mubarrad transmitted them, along with a biography patterned on the 'sold slave-girl' tale-type, al-Mutanabbī plagiarised them and reversed their message. This yields a corpus which can contribute to an Abbasid history of emotions."
