

3232 MELCHERT, Christopher. The inquisition outside Baghdad. Journal of the American Oriental Society, 141 i (2021) pp. 201-210. "The Inquisition (mihna) of al-Ma'mūn (d. 218/833) was a serious attempt to establish the caliph as arbiter of Islamic orthodoxy. It was actively prosecuted by the succeeding two caliphs, and finally abolished by his nephew, the caliph al-Mutawakkil, in 237/852."
